Harden Healthcare Announces Phil Krause Leadership Award Winner

Values of Former Harden Consultant Live on Through Award Nominees

AUSTIN, TX—Harden Healthcare is pleased to announce Russell Wright, administrator of TRISUN Care Center Wurzbach in San Antonio, as the winner of the Phil Krause Leadership Award. With this award, Harden proudly recognizes Wright as a leader who embodies the key teachings and philosophy modeled by Phil Krause, former Harden executive coach and instructor.

The award is given to an employee who models the Harden leadership values, guiding principles and standards of behavior; demonstrates exceptional performance on metrics and operations, and shows self-motivation as a leader, among other qualities.

“Russell mentors, motivates and guides employees to reach their goals and the common goals of the facility,” Victoria Palm, regional vice president of TRISUN Healthcare, said. “He has taken this facility, nurtured it, grown an incredible team and provided quality service to all that it serves. It is my honor and pleasure to work with Russell Wright.”

Wright has been with TRISUN Care Center Wurzbach for more than seven years. Under his leadership, the team has developed one of the most effective systems of communications within the company and produced positive financial and quality results month after month.
