Harden Healthcare Acquires Asian American Home Care, Inc.

Home Health Company Serves San Francisco Bay Area

AUSTIN, TX—Harden Healthcare, an Austin-based company that provides a continuum of healthcare services to seniors in 14 states, announced today that it has expanded its home health operations with the purchase of Asian American Home Care, Inc. The agency is based in Oakland, Calif., with a branch office in San Jose, and will serve the residents of Alameda, Contra Costa, San Francisco, San Mateo, and Santa Clara counties.

“Asian American Home Care is recognized for its multilingual and culturally sensitive services and we are proud to welcome the company to the Harden Healthcare family,” Kelly Jalowiec, president of Harden Healthcare’s Home Health Division, said. “Asian American Home Care will continue to provide Bay Area seniors with the skilled and personal care services they may require to remain in their own homes.”

-More-

The team at Asian American Home Care works with each patient's physician to create a personalized care plan designed to meet specific medical needs. Skilled services offered include nursing care, home health aides, medical social workers, disease management and education, medication management, and rehabilitation including physical, occupational and speech therapy. Asian American Home Care seeks to support, promote and advocate for the vulnerable elderly and underserved minorities by providing top-quality patient care in a compassionate and ethical manner while encouraging a lifestyle of independence.

Asian American Home Care's team consists of 100 associates and is led by Cindy Cao who serves as administrator. Additionally, Nancy Liu will remain in her current position as director of marketing.
