Georgia Hospice Now Open and Serving the Greater Atlanta Area

Harden Healthcare's Hospice Division Expands to Georgia

AUSTIN, TX—Harden Healthcare announced today the opening of Georgia Hospice, LLC, which marks the company's entry into the Georgia hospice market. Georgia Hospice is located at 2001 Professional Way, Suite 240, in Woodstock, GA. It serves the greater Atlanta area, including Fulton, DeKalb, Cherokee, Cobb, Pickens, Forsyth, Bartow, Paulding, Gordon, Hall, Barrow and Gwinnett counties.

Harden Healthcare is a Texas-based company that provides a continuum of healthcare services, primarily for seniors, and has operations in 14 states. The company's Hospice Division is one of the largest hospice providers in the Central U.S., now serving six states with the addition of Georgia Hospice.

"We are excited to open Georgia Hospice and offer our hospice services to Atlanta-area residents for the first time," Jay Koeper, president of Harden Healthcare's Hospice Division, said. "We are dedicated to guiding and partnering with those in need so they can take comfort in the knowledge that someone is there to help — spiritually, emotionally and physically."

The Georgia Hospice team is led by Anita Jones, Master of Science in Nursing (MSN), Master of Science in Health Administration (MHA), Registered Nurse (RN), who serves as the company's director of patient services. She previously served as director of health services for United Hospice Atlanta. Georgia Hospice currently has seven employees and will grow as necessary depending on the patients that they serve.

Georgia Hospice provides physical, emotional and spiritual care for the terminally ill and ongoing support for their loved ones. The company's mission is to provide an unparalleled level of care and support to individuals, families and loved ones as they face the realities of life-limiting illness.
